

Hydrogen - local authority progress and pilots

Agenda

10.00 Registration and networking

10:20 Welcome – Celia Greaves, CEO of the HEA and Phil Brennan, Head of APSE Energy, followed by opening remarks Cllr Susan Hinchcliffe, Leader of Bradford City Council

Formal programme

10.30 Plenary – presentations

- Why hydrogen? Celia Greaves, CEO of the HEA
- Practical experience in deploying one of the largest hydrogen production facilities in the UK: joint presentation from Andrew Whittles, Low Carbon Strategist from Bradford City Council and Neil Travers, Head of Business Development at N-GEN

Q&A

11:45 Break – Tea and Coffee

12:10 Opening panel speech – Abigail Dombey, Director of Hydrogen Sussex

12: 15 Panel discussion - chaired by Amanda Lyne, Chair of the HEA and Managing Director at ULEMCo:

“Considerations around local deployment of hydrogen”

Speakers - Abigail Dombey, Director of Hydrogen Sussex, Paul Wood, Head of Economic Development and Strategic Management at East Suffolk Council, Matt Woollin at the Environmental Agency and Patrick Robinson, Partner at Burges Salmon.

Q&A

1:15 Lunch with Tea and Coffee

14:00 Case Study Showcase 1:

‘Operating a fleet of hydrogen buses’ – Liverpool City Region Combined Authority with Freddie Minter, Hydrogen Solutions Manager at Equans UK & Ireland.

Case Study Showcase 2:

‘Deploying hydrogen powered emergency vehicles’ – Kunal Prasad, Zero Carbon Council Manager, Oxfordshire County Council.

Q&A

14:55 Phil Brennan, Head of APSE Energy, Concluding comments

15.00 Finish of formal proceedings to be followed by networking