

Central region online seminar

Communities and neighbourhoods

Your chance to hear from leading councils from across the region

Tuesday 18 November, 11:00-12:30, MS Teams

Our speakers:

Neighbourhood working in Derby – Developing a hyperlocal approach

Decentralising service delivery and fostering community resilience through a hyperlocal model, focussed on bespoke, co-produced solutions, leading to increased community capacity, improved resident engagement, and a focus on preventative measures, particularly in complex areas like health and social care demand.

Neil Woodhead, Service Manager
Neighbourhoods, Derby City Council

Tackling litter with our Adopt a Street Scheme

APSE Service Awards 2025 Finalist

A community-led movement fostering civic pride and shared responsibility. Engaging schools, businesses, charities and individuals to create a collective commitment to cleaner streets, sustainable habits, and improved public spaces.

Karen Haynes, Community Project
Officer, Wyre Forest District Council

Taking energy advice into the HEART of rural communities

APSE Service Awards 2025 Winner

A new approach – meet ERIC the Energy Van, providing more than just energy advice. The programme seeks to tackle social and digital isolation by taking advice and funding support services to residents in their local communities rather than relying on them finding information by social media or picking up the phone

Sarah Baker, Group Manager -
Climate Change and Environment,
South & East Lincolnshire Councils
Partnership
