

The Civic Centre

Barras Bridge, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 8QH

Telephone: 0191 277 7222

Is a venue like no other - It is a combination of our rich history, long lasting traditions, flexibility, and authentic modernist architecture that brings any function to life, making the Civic Centre a true modern classic and a venue unlike any other. So pass through the shadow of the magnificent bronze casting of the River God Tyne, and into the most prestigious building in the city for a truly unforgettable red carpet experience.

Getting to Newcastle and Gateshead by train

Travelling to Newcastle by train is easy thanks to the number of train services which offer regular and direct routes from London, Edinburgh and Leeds, to name a few.

London North Eastern Railway offers a frequent and direct service linking London Kings Cross to Scotland via Newcastle with regular stops in Doncaster, York, Darlington, Berwick and Edinburgh.

Other key train operators which travel to Newcastle and Gateshead include Northern Rail and TransPennine Express, which have regular services connecting Newcastle to the North West, Teesside, Cumbria, Northumberland and stations across Yorkshire.

Newcastle Central Station is in the heart of the city making your onward journey quick and simple. The station is within walking distance of many central destinations including Grey's Monument, the Quayside, St James' Park and city-centre attractions. Hop off the train and you are well connected to the rest of the region by Metro, QuayLink, bus and taxi.

Getting to Newcastle and Gateshead by car

Travelling by road to Newcastle and Gateshead is hassle-free thanks to a network of major roads, including the A1 (M) which conveniently links Newcastle to London, the South, Scotland and major routes across the country. The A69 heads west and connects Newcastle with historic Carlisle and Hexham as well as the Lake District and, via the M6, to the South, Wales and the West of England. Once you're here, you can park up in one of the many well-signposted central car parks within the city.

Getting to Newcastle from Newcastle International Airport

Newcastle International Airport provides superb links to the rest of the UK, Europe and beyond with direct flights to and from over 80 destinations. When arriving at Newcastle Airport, you will find a number of transport options to take you into Newcastle city centre.

Newcastle airport is located less than 8 miles outside of Newcastle city centre and is only a 20-minute drive by car. Airport Metro Station is located just outside the airport itself; hop on regular services to Newcastle city centre which is only a 25-minute metro ride away.