

APSE Commercialisation Network: Special Online Event

Dear Colleagues,

APSE/CIPFA Big Property Discussion: Property and Local Government in a Post-COVID World. FREE Event Wednesday 10 March 10.00 – 12.15

Click here to reserve your place

CIPFA and APSE are conducting research into the ways property and asset management in local government is changing as a result of the COVID pandemic. This research will inform a report, detailing how the public sector has reacted, the challenges it has and will face, and what it means for those operating in local government where they use, manage and deal with property and assets.

This event will be run in the form of a live online discussion as part of a special session of the APSE Commercialisation Network to inform the upcoming research. As a commercialisation lead within your own authority you are invited to attend this event.

The Agenda is as follows

Welcome: Cllr Tracey Dixon, Deputy Leader of South Tyneside Council and APSE Network Chair

Discussion panel:

- David Bentley, Head of Asset Management at CIPFA
- Paul O'Brien, Chief Executive of APSE.

Panel and audience interactive questions will take place throughout this event.

Please feel free to forward any questions you would like to raise for discussion in advance to Mo Baines on mbaines@apse.org.uk

APSE Commercialisation update

- The General Power of Competence in Wales
- Procurement note 11/20 and Teckal and Hamburg exceptions
- Research on the future of school catering

Mo Baines, APSE Head of Communication and Coordination
