About the seminar

This seminar is an ideal opportunity for officers, managers, elected members and trade unions interested in the delivery of long term solutions for street scene, waste and transport services.

The meeting will provide insights into how other local authorities are achieving high quality outcomes in managing their local environments, waste arising and vehicle fleets. Issues such as performance management, innovative partnerships, behavioural change and transport innovations will be featured.

Environmental services are facing multiple challenges in the current climate of austerity. This forum hopes to offer help and advice to meeting these challenges.

Who should attend?

- Street scene managers and directors
- Waste and recycling managers
- Behavioural change officers
- Policy officers
- Elected members and cabinet members
- Transport and vehicle fleet managers
