

A half-day practical workshop on biomass projects

Click to Book Online

Wednesday 22nd June 2016 - Manchester Conference Centre

APSE Energy members - Free attendance
Non-APSE Energy members - £99 + VAT

This is an ideal opportunity to remain up to date with developments in biomass issues and RHI changes, to learn from others, discuss and ask questions.

Programme

- 10:00am Registration
- 10:30am Welcome and introduction – Phil Brennan, Head of APSE Energy
- 10:35am The wider policy context – Steve Cirell, APSE Associate
- 11:05am Planning, procuring and delivering biomass heat schemes in the public sector – Steve Luker, APSE Associate
- 11:35am Q&A
- 11:40am Break
- 12:00am The practicalities of the biomass supply chain – Phil Benn, Treestation
- 12:30am Stockport’s Homes biomass project - a case study – Steve Luker, APSE Associate
- 12:50pm Developing and preparing a business case for a biomass heat project – Neil Harrison
Re:heat and vice Chair of the WHA
- 1:20pm Q&A, summary and close
- 1:30pm Lunch

To book attendance Click to Book Online or contact Alistair Holcroft at aholcroft@apse.org.uk

Manchester Conference Centre
Sackville Street, Manchester, M1 3BB
0161 955 8181

View Map

Delegates will also receive a copy of 'A guide to Biomass Renewable Heating Projects for local government and the public sector' by Steve Cirell and Steve Luker.